Greetings in the name of the Lord Jesus,
Several folks have been by to visit us here. We enjoy company, and the opportunity to “use hospita1y”.

We are having a five day meeting starting the 22nd through the 26th. I would have it to be longer but shortness seems to be the trend than days. Short sermons, short songs and short services. And sing only three verses of a four verse song. Most have only one service a week. I suppose this would give less of an opportunity to backslide.

Recently I mentioned that we used to have meetings two weeks long and two services each day, and if many were saved it would be "protracted". He was very surprised.

Yes we baptist have changed in our practice in the past thirty years. In do time I have seen many changes in practice and teachings. Many reasons could be given for this change. I think Paul would mention Romans 13/11-12.

It's a burden to my heart. The only solution apart from a complete collapse of the economy that I can see is the return of our Lord and Savior.

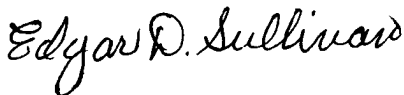

I am unable to travel but this does not bother me. I do preach and teach here at this church.

Presently I am teaching the books of Genesis and Romans. They match up surprisingly well.

I enjoy hearing from you from time to times

May the Lord give you good services as you wait for His son from heaven.

Yours sincerely in Christ Jesus
