Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ Jesus,

This is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it. A dear saint in Oregon used to quote this scripture in every letter she wrote. So in time it has become a part of my thinking.

The beautiful cool weather and glorious color of the trees makes the scripture seem timely. Yet the Lord made the cloudy days also.

I hope that as the coming of the Lord draws nearer and the devil preaches his gospel many folk will see the contrast and turn to the Lord.

We will soon select our next president. I pray that the Lord will have mercy upon our nation.

I love my church. My church is a refuge for me. I need the fellowship of my brethren.

Bro. and Sister Eldwyn Rodgers and their son Daniel payed a visit recently. We had a wonderful time remembering memories. We parted with these words. "We will meet again either here or hereafter".

As I mentioned before we are studying the book of Revelation. It has made me feel a depth of urgency I have never experienced before. Its not good to look at current events, then look at the bible second. It will give us better balance to look at the word first.

It seems obvious to me that end time saints are due for a season of sharp testings. Who will be able to stand in these evil days?

Even so this time of prosperity has dampened the ardor of many of the Lords people. There is a proverb; "Adversity has slain her hundreds, but prosperity has slain her thousands".

I pray that the Lord will give you good services.

Thanks very much for the Sept. offering of $50.00

Sincerely in Christ Jesus,

Edgar D. Sullivan
